

Crexi is a complete commercial real estate platform for brokers, buyers, and tenants — with everything you need to support deals from listing to close. Crexi is the fastest-growing commercial real estate marketplace with millions of visitors each month and over 500,000 sale and lease listings currently live.

MEMBERSHIP

PRO

PRO brokers have access to exclusive tools and analytics for their listings that enable them to close deals faster by marketing their listings effectively to Crexi buyers and tenants. They are also assigned a dedicated customer success manager to help them utilize all of Crexi's powerful PRO features.

DATA

INTELLIGENCE

An Intelligence subscription includes access to our database of 13M+ sales comps, 153M+ property records with ownership contact information, instant analytics, and demographics insights. The information provided with Intelligence helps brokers, sellers, and buyers make better decisions when transacting commercial real estate.

TRANSACTION SERVICES

AUCTION

Crexi Auction cultivates and delivers a competitive arena where qualified buyers can access value-add deals across the nation, bid to win on auction day, and close with non-contingent contracts in 30 days

FUSE

FUSE

Fuse is a website plugin that seamlessly integrates a broker's Sale and Lease listings on Crexi onto their website and lets prospective buyers and tenants search, filter, and view detailed listing information without leaving the broker's website.
